

Necrology.

Alva H. Tyson.

Alva H. Tyson, Esq., of Colora, died at one o'clock Friday morning—at the Maryland General Hospital in Baltimore, where he had been ill for two weeks with spinal paralysis, having been taken ill while on a business trip to that city.

Mr. Tyson was a son of Samuel Tyson, a prominent farmer of the Sixth district, and was born March 1, 1868. He began work as a farmer, but when a young man went to Baltimore, where he obtained a position on the police force, reading law in his spare hours, and about ten years ago was admitted ~~to the Baltimore bar.~~—During Governor Crothers's administration he served as a police magistrate in Baltimore, and since his retirement has had charge of the Black Barren Springs bottling enterprise. He married Miss Annie Jenness, a sister of Dr. John H. Jenness, of Rising Sun, who survives him with one son, Allen G. Tyson. He is also survived by his father, five sisters, Mrs. J. F. McClure, of Baltimore, Mrs. Howard A. Woodrow, of Wilkes-Barre, Pa.; Mrs. Prince T. Woods, of Silver Lake, Mass.; Mrs. Sherwood Brumfield, of Philadelphia, Pa., and Miss Bertha M. Tyson, of Rising Sun; and three brothers, Joseph T. and Stanton S. Tyson, of Rising Sun, and Curtis O. Tyson, of Baltimore.

Funeral service was held Sunday evening at the home of his sister, Mrs. McClure. Monday afternoon services were held at West Nottingham Church, and interment made in the adjoining cemetery.
